Dear Mr. Nixon:

The Publications Review Board has completed its review of the galley proofs of your manuscript entitled "Debriefing the President: The Interrogation of Saddam Hussein," submitted 4 October 2016. The Board has confirmed that you made all required changes with one exception: (b)(3) NatSecAct you neglected to delete the sentence as required (page attached for your reference). We realize this is likely an oversight, and merely request that you re-submit this one page so that the Board can confirm you have made the change.

The Board also notes that the required disclaimer has been removed. Please re-insert the disclaimer and submit that page so that we can confirm. As a reminder, the text of the disclaimer is as follows:

This does not constitute an official release of CIA information. All statements of fact, opinion, or analysis expressed are those of the author and do not reflect the official positions or views of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) or any other U.S. Government agency. Nothing in the contents should be construed as asserting or implying U.S. Government authentication of information or CIA endorsement of the author's views. This material has been reviewed solely for classification.

In both cases outlined above, please wait for the Board's final, written confirmation prior to sharing your manuscript with your publisher or anyone else.

Other than the required edits indicated above, the Board has determined that your manuscript does not contain classified information and has no security objection to its publication.

If you add material to or change the text the Board has approved for publication, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. In such a case, please mark or otherwise clearly indicate the new material so we can expedite our review. Additional material that must be submitted include, but is not limited to, photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, charts, indexes, glossaries, maps, forwards, or afterwords.
